

Austin Child Guidance Center Walk-In Counseling Service

Immediate service for immediate needs

ANNOUNCEMENT:

Walk-In Clinic expands to second day
Now open Tuesdays and Fridays

Children up to the age of 17 as well as other family members can be seen without having to wait for an appointment. Parents can be seen without their child to consult about problem behavior, seek advice or get direction. Family members can for be seen for one walk-in session or return for more. Services can be provided in English or Spanish.

WHEN: Tuesday: 5:00 - 7:00PM

Friday: 2:00 - 4:00PM

Clients are seen on a first come, first serve basis

WHERE: Austin Child Guidance Center, 810 W. 45th St.

BY WHOM: Qualified mental health professionals who are specially trained to work in this 50-minute format

FEE: Sliding fee scale

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: (512) 451-2242

Please note that walk-in services do not provide access to medications, psychiatric emergency services or follow-up psychiatric care. Individuals who are an immediate threat to themselves or others should go to the nearest emergency room or call 911.